AGADIR

The city of Agadir, located in south of Morocco is surrounded by the green Souss Valley. Only three hours and half by plane from the most important European Capitals, Agadir is the refuge against the greyness of winter.

Located at 500 km from Casablanca and 250 km of Marrakech, Agadir is an ideal place to discover the splendid Berber hinterland.

The Agadir bay, with a beach of fine and fair sand, extends over more than 9 km. In its north extremity, a pleasure port, a water-sports club and a marina give to the city a "sea side" atmosphere.. The site is well sheltered from the wind. The climate is mild (20 to 23° in winter, 25 to 30° in summer) with 300 days of sun per year.

In the South, an unexpected and authentic region with Taroudant, former Berber town of XVI century. Only 80 km from Agadir. The valley of Ammeln, one of the Tafraout's valley , in 140 km, and where the traditions of the Berber of the South of Morocco continue for centuries.
