

MOROCCO, voted Golf Destination of the Year 2010 by IAGTO (International Association of Golf Tour Operators)

MOROCCO GOLF FESTIVAL "Third Edition"

Sunday 7th to Sunday 14th October 2012 - MARRAKECH

The Morocco Golf festival is played for the third time on the fabulous golf courses surrounding the historic city of Marrakech.

The festival starts with a gentle warm-up round to allow golfers to acclimatize to the warm and sunny conditions. The first day we'll send teams of 4 out in a Texas Scramble format.

For the four competitive rounds, players will be playing in separate categories and will see them play 4 rounds of Stableford competition of your official handicap (no slope rating adjustment)

Out of the first three rounds, the worst score will be discarded and the score of your best two rounds will get you up the leader board.

The final round always counts and will be added to your best two round score. Players will go out in order of score with the best players out last.

EXCITING PROGRAMME

In addition to competitive golf, there is an exciting programme full of various activities: Cocktails party – City sightseeing tour of Marrakech– Gala Dinner with entertainment, Accompanying person programme. This tournament week is great fun and an enjoyable way of making new friends, friendly competition and play on some outstanding golf courses in Morocco

AL MAADEN Golf Club is situated near the fascinating historical and cultural centre of Marrakech, with the majestic Atlas Mountains as a backdrop. This 18-hole golf course is designed by Kyle Phillips

The golf course has been designed in grand rolling terrain, placed at the foot hills of the nearby Atlas Mountains. Strategically placed bunkers give players multiple lines of play from the tee and tightly cut spill off areas around the greens gather errant shots, providing a variety of exiting recovery opportunities.

Keeping with the traditions of golf, AL Maaden is designed as a walker friendly course, with a surrounding designed landscape and geometric water features that give a feeling of playing through a Moroccan garden
